A Joyous Christmas Season

A Bright And Happy New Year

The Hoag Tour at Norwalk

Appreciates your nice letter so much. Virginia Dunn is well and is gaining ½ lb a week like a good child. We are so happy with our two little girls. Mary will be four next June. I miss you so when I go up to Delhi. It will never be quite the same without you there. With very best wishes for 1932.

Dear Mr. Howell:

Of course, the Synod of Pennsylvania does not approve or encourage the use of the Lord's Day as a holiday. One student's remark does not prove anything. The Synod would probably vote unanimously against the misuse of the day.

Dear Stanleigh:

Enclosed find check for $51.70 which you will please credit to the account of Augusta H. Robinson. I also enclose a check left blank in amount for the collector. Will you be kind enough to hand it to him properly filled out and have him send me a receipt to the above address?

We are thankful for your card and rejoice that Peter's name was on it. We hope our palm is not proving too much for him or you. Of course you are delighted with the news from our friends up north. We hope Lewis Anderson will live long and prosper. We were at Stewart's home in Elizabeth over Christmas and had a very pleasant time.

Most cordially yours,

Dear Mr Robinson,

A Student of one of the Pennsylvania Colleges which is under the care of the Synod of Pennsylvania said that it was found advisable to permit tennis and bathing at the college on Sunday.— Does this mean that the Synod of Pa — approves and encourages the use of the Sabbath day as a holiday?

Thanking you for a reply —

Very sincerely

My dear Humeston:

It was so good to receive a letter from you this morning and also the poem which I think we can find space to print though I may confess to you that which doubtless you know, we are crowded with manuscripts and many have to be laid aside for awhile.

I hear from you indirectly occasionally through my son's wife whose kindred live in Huntington at least part of the year. They are, I think, Episcopalians in so far as they are interested at all. I am wondering how you all are and how the children are thriving and what they are doing. As I get older the friends of former years become more vivid and precious. I find it more difficult to make new friends. Mrs. Robinson and I have an apartment in the city and I am plugging along here as best I can. Our paper, like all others, has been badly hit by the depression but it looks as if we might pull on for a time at least.

Please remember us to your wife and accept cordial regards for yourself.

Most sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Robinson:

I am in receipt of your letter of December 10th, and would say that I have a letter in reply to mine from Mr. J. Williston Smith this morning, stating that he was so greatly tied up with business matters that he does not see his way clear to come on the Board.

As stated in my previous letter to you, I advised Dr. McEwan with regard to Mr. McCormick, of Harrisburg. Have not heard further as yet from Dr. McEwan.

You have been advised of the postponement of the meeting of the Board of Directors to January 5th, at which time also the stockholders meeting adjourned from the 18th is to be held.

With best personal regards,

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Robinson:-

Can you use these verses? If so you are welcome to them. Provided only that I may have the privilege of circulating them among friends in the form of a Christmas Card as I do each year with Christmas effusions.

I would not send these to you if I did not believe that no consideration of auld lang syne, and all that, would induce you to publish them if they lacked the literary merit your paper requires. If they are too poor, or unsuitable to your purposes, just send them back and forget that I pestered you with t hem , if you can.

Dear Dr. Robinson:

I am in receipt of your letter of December 8th, and replying thereto would say that I have written Dr. McEwan since its receipt suggesting the name of Mr. Henry B. McCormick, of Harrisburg, and if he approves, of his getting in touch and securing the consent of Mr. McCormick as a possible new member of the Board.

I am in receipt today of a telegram from Mr. Thompson, advising he could not be in Philadelphia on the 18th, and stating he could make it the week of the 25th.

I fear that would be an unfortunate time for perhaps most of the members, but am still waiting for further replies before advising any change from the 18th, the notices for which have already been sent out.

I have a letter from Howard Pew this morning saying he could not subscribe $5,000. at this time, but was contributing $1,000., and would do something more after the first of the year.

Dear Mr. Harbison:

I received the letter from Mr. Wooster which I appreciated at the time of its receipt very much indeed.

Miss McKinney told me that you are considering J. Willison Smith as a director. I esteem Mr. Smith most highly and know that he is in full sympathy with that for which the Presbyterian Church stands. I also know that he is excessively busy and has not attended a Princeton Board meeting since his appointment. He did send us $25.00 a while ago and might be induced to help more. I mention these things not as an objection but for your consideration.

Arrangements have been made for the meeting December 18th. I hope your affairs will permit you to be present and hope that Mr. Monro may be there.

We received a check of $1000 from Mr. Pew.

My dear Mr. Harbison:

I am reluctant to intrude upon you in these days when you are overwhelmed with your business. I want to express my sincere regret that you are having so many perplexities. You have been a wonderfully generous man and have helped good things and I cannot but believe the Lord will assure your way out of these perplexing times which are distressing so many.

The notices for the meetings of the directors and stockholders which will be held in Room 418, Witherspoon Building, 10 A.M., December 18th, are being mailed today. I am very grateful for the kind action of the board of directors and for your personal words of approval. I am vividly conscious of my deficiences and am the more rejoiced when anything good can be said. I hope it will not disturb you but I think I may say here that for me to close work December 31st would be very bad. I think I would have to continue until March first if I continue at all as I bring Mrs. Robinson down and we take an apartment and it would be most inconvenient to stop in mid-year. That is only a suggestion which can be discussed if necessary when the board meets.

I am sincerely concerned for THE PRESBYTERIAN and I want above all things for it to continue. I may say that much as I admire J. Willison Smith (and I do admire him very greatly) he is an excessively busy man and has not attended one meeting of the Princeton board of trustees since his election and I know he would not be able to give any personal help to the board of directors of THE PRESBYTERIAN. I have thought of Henry B. McCormick of Harrisburg who is, I understand, a strong fundamentalist and I know has done great work at Lincoln University and is a member of the Board of National Missions. He was formerly I think (but not now) a member of Wilson College board of trustees. He is a brother of Vance McCormick and during this last year has been very generous to Lincoln University. These are simply suggestions which you may consider if you have time.

Again I want to express my personal regard for you and my distress that you are having such an unpleasant business experience.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Dr. Robinson:

Under the tremendous rush of matters, I fear I overlooked writing you directly after the meeting.

Copies of the minutes as I took them were sent to each member of the Board for correction where needed, such corrections to be sent by them directly to the secretary, Mr. Monro.

The minute book was received by me, and forwarded to Mr. Monro, who will embody the corrected minutes in the book. However, as I had acted for the Secretary, I fear I should have written to you directly with regard to the action of the meeting, and can only plead the worst financial pressure that I have ever been under myself in not doing things as I would have done them under less pressure. I haven't even seen the letter that I understand you wrote after the meeting, owing to this same pressure, with my correspondence having to give way to consultations with bankers, lawyers, etc.

A letter from Miss McKinney saying that she would send out the notices for the meeting on the 18th has awakened me to the fact of my negligence in writing.

You may be sure of my own personal high regard and appreciation of what you have accomplished during your past year's service.

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Wm. Albert Harbison,

New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Harbison:

After you left the Penn Athletic Building following our last meeting someone (I have forgotten who) had the minute book and other papers that you had left in the room where we met. He said that he was going to New York on the three o'clock train and would take them to you. We have not heard a word and have wondered in the office whether they were put safely in your hand. Certainly it would be a serious thing to lose those books.

I have had no intimation, except most informally from Dr. McEwan, as to the desires and plans of the Board of Directors. He did tell me that you had resolved to increase the number. That I considered a very wise and excellent movement for I have felt that it was all wrong that you and Mr. Crowell should bear so large a part of the financial burden. I was sorry that I could not be in the meeting to hear the comments which Dr. McEwan told me very hastily were made.

I am trying to find out and yet have not been able to find out exactly what some of the Directors wish. Mr. Crowell mystifies me exceedingly. I wrote him last summer a long letter telling how much I would appreciate his frank criticism and ideas but he did not even acknowledge the receipt of the letter. I think we cannot overemphasize the loyalty and devotion that you have shown and I am strong in my conviction that THE PRESBYTERIAN must be continued for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven and the Presbyterian Church. Will you kindly write Miss McKinney or me informing us as to whether you received those important books and documents?

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Robinson;---

Thanks for the congratulations in your letter of the 19th but deep down in your heart you know how much I desired the Presidency of the Kiwanis Club.

I have dodged successfully on two previous occasions and had asked the boys not to nominate me this year. They disregarded my request and nominated me. A rather humorous complication arose and it was necessary that I stand for election. I will tell you the story when we meet again. As a result I am President Si's successor and on the first day of January I become the head KI of the Delhi Kiwanians.

Moreover when you return in the Spring I will permit you to lead the singing of "Round her Neck she wears a Yaller ribbon", "The Old Gray Mare", "Builders" and other inspirational songs so dear to the heart of all true Kiwanians. I may decide to make you a member of my Cabinet. Perhaps not as profitable a position as a place in Mayor Walker's Cabinet would be but every bit as honorable , I dare say.

I am sure Mrs Robinson and you had a happy Thanksgiving Day at Stewart's and it is mighty fine that you are located so that you can be together on Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Our Church was about two-thirds filled for the Thanksgiving service. Some Second people attended as Rev. Bosley is ill and no service was held in their Church.

Gertrude and I send kindest regards to Mrs Robinson and yourself and trust that you Winter in Philadelphia May be a pleasent one.

My dear Dr. Robinson:

With much profit to myself, I have been a subscriber and a reader of The Presbyterian for many years.

As a Vice-President of our Board of National Missions and a member of its Finance Committee, I have been quite concerned over statements that have appeared on your editorial page from time to time during the past year to the effect that the overhead expenses of the Boards are altogether too high. If you know of specific instances where our Board can cut down overhead, wouldn't it be fair to write to some of us on the Board who are vitally interested in this very matter? We are always glad to receive constructive suggestions which will help us to bring about a decrease in our expenses. You know it is quite popular nowadays for men to say of this or that charitable organization, "Iam not going to give; it uses too much of its money in overhead."

Such statements, however, are usually made by men who are uninformed or by those who wouldn't give anyway.

The broad statement as made in your paper cannot help the Boards in any way, in my opinion. In fact, I believe it hurts the Boards. There is nothing constructive about the statement. In fact, it tends to shake the confidence of Presbyterians in their own agencies. I know the members of the Finance Committee of our Board are endeavoring all the time to keep our overhead down to the lowest possible minimum. We are not infallible. We make mistakes, but our hearts are in our work.

Would it be fair to ask you this question: Do you know now, without looking it up, what percentage of our budget of approximately $4,000,000. is used for overhead?

I trust you will consider this a personal letter and not one for publication. I do not wish to start any controversy, because I do not believe that the Church ever gains very much in this way. I just wanted to express to you my personal feeling in the matter.

With kindest personal regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Robinson:-

A couple of weeks ago when I noticed in the Presbyterian that you had made use of material in one of our 'Sunday School Newsletters' I decided to write you a word of appreciation. Before I could get to that there has come the issue of Oct. 8 which contains mention of Drs. Koons, Roberts, Mr. Hunt and of me together with our wives. You put us all under a debt of friendship and kindliness which is one of the kinds of debt I like, and which requires that we sho ld at least say Thank you' which Mrs. Holdcroft and I do, from our hearts.

Just at this time I especially appreciate such words of encouragement, for missionary work is not all easy, and just at present we face many difficulties. One of the most difficult of these is caused, in Korea, by a party spirit among Koreans which gets even into the Churches sometimes. At present we have had evidence of it among some of the Korean members of The Sunday School Association. Almost every missionary can, and probably does many a time echo Paul's words "My little children I am perplexed over you until Christ be formed in you," Your words were written at a time when I was in such perplexity and they reached me before I was out of it.

We have had another and even greater year in Summer Bible School work for the children. 951 schools have reported just under 100,000 children so far, and probably not all reports are in even yet. I will send you a full report when they are printed. This is a constant marvel to us, that God continues His grace in the midst of difficulties and perplexities. Perhaps you would also be interested in a personal report I am making this afternoon to Seoul Station of The Korea Mission.

However this is just a 'thank you note! I hope that both you and Mrs. Robinson are well and that our good friends at Gouverneur are also. I wish that we could look in on you both.

Cordially yours,

J G Holdcroft.

Enclosed find a short article which I should be pleased to have you publish in the Christmas issue of The Presbyterian. Each year for several years I have contributed an article on world peace. I try to write something worthwhile so that it will help to create the necessary opinion to accomplish it. My own students tell me they always enjoy the articles. I hope you shall find room for this one as I try to make them as short as possible. Will you please send me six copies in which the article appears as I should like to present them to my students. It may be of interest to you to know that I am an ordained mimister of the Chester Presbytery, and stated supply of the Diworthtown Church, but am giving the major service to educational work. My dear "Bill",

Well, I see you have attained the eminence at last, successor of President Oles. I can conceive that you esteem it a great honor. It certainly is. It indicates at least a local popularity. I wish you all success and a happy administration, less trouble than that of the other President, Herbert Hoover.

I received your book review and thank you. I sent one to Gertrude. I am not sure whether the review is returned or not. Sometimes they come to the other part of the office and I do not see them until printed. We have a good number on hand and it takes some time to get them before the readers.

We are getting along very comfortably and are both exceedingly well. We are still having our troubles which weigh upon the heart somewhat but on the whole I think we ought to be very thankful. We spend Thanksgiving with Stewart's family and probably will return there also for Christmas.

Give our regards to everybody who is interested and accept sincere affection for Gertrude and yourself.

Dear Mr. Howard:

Nearly all the magazines today except those strictly denominational are destructive rather than constructive. Some of theMare devoted to special departments of Christian work. "The Fundamentalist" is published in Haddonfield, New Jersey, and is a very excellent monthly. I approve of it because it quotes so largely from THE PRESBYTERIAN. There are plenty of magazines but they are all limited as I have said.

I take the liberty to ask you if you can kindly tell me of any really constructive Religious Magazine. I have a son who reads the Magazines of the day which are about all destructive when they touch on Religion. I want something to confirm his faith which , I think, be better done by reading a Magazine of frequent appearance than by reading a book.

Is there such a Magazine in existence ? or is it so that the church cannot provide such a need ?

I have received your letter of resignation as editor of The Presbyterian to take effect March 1, 1932. I am sorry to get it, but accept it chiefly in light of your second reason, mainly to allow the directors a free choice in the general revamping of the paper. My dear Dr. Hodge:

I cannot tell you how much your letter received this morning pleased me. You have in every circumstance been so wise and loyal to the good that I rate your opinion very highly indeed. I presented my resignation in all good faith.

The situation for the paper and in the Church is, in my judgment, very critical. It seems to me that we are like to lose our firm Presbyterian basis. I think our greatest danger is not theological but political. I have not yet seen my way clear to fight that openly for I think it was proven in the Princeton matter that an open fight does not get very far. However, at the meeting the policy will be thoroughly discussed and I want to assure you that I have rejoiced in your friendship particularly and I want THE PRESBYTERIAN to go on under the best possible leadership that can be secured.

I do not know from your letter whether he is a minister of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., or of the Presbyterian Church, U.S. In the latter case, he should turn to that denomination. I am sure if his case, endorsed by presbytery, were submitted to the Presbyterian Board of Pensions in the Witherspoon Building it would receive full and careful attention. I think you should try the usual avenues first.

Dear Mr. Hazard:

Because I have been travelling about and your letter got tucked away in my bag and was overlooked for a long time, I must ask your pardon for the delay in answering.

I knew your father somewhat. He preached in the church in which I was born at Delhi several times and I also preached in Catskill. We met several times though not very frequently. To my mind, he was an ideal Christian gentleman and I loved him very much. We are printing one of his articles in the issue of November 5th. You asked me to give you a list of the names of them. I can do so by looking through a very large pile of contributed manuscripts and if you insist I will do so but I will be happy if you will spare me that. I remember one is "The Unsuccessful Candidate." We will send ycu a copy of any paper in which his contribution is printed. We have so many sent in to us that we cannot print as promptly as we would like.

I am very glad to hear from you and hope that I can fulfill your desires.

Yours very sincerely,

WCR*E

Dear Dr. Robinson:-

Please accept the thanks of my family and myself for the kindly tribute you paid to the memory of my Father in the obituary notice you published in the Sept. 10, 1931, issue of The Presbyterian. I enclose a clipping from The Catskill Recorder for your personal information.

My Father - Rev. Christopher Grant Hazard, D. D., of Catskill, N. Y. - had been in unusually good health this last year and his sudden death was a great shock to us, although we knew that he had a weakened heart condition and the arterial schlerosis that might be expected in a man of his age. He was born at Newport, R. I., May 9, 1852. With the approval of his physician, he was visiting his nephew, Fred M. Wood, at Rochester, N. Y. He was seemingly all right as he sat down to the breakfast table on Saturday morning Aug. 29, but within a few moments he was stricken with a cerebral lesion that completely paralyzed his left side, although his hearing and sight remained alert and he could speak,- thickly. I was fortunate enough to reach his bedside in time to talk with him briefly, to make certain that he recognized me and was comforted thereby, and that it was a satisfaction to him that I had come to him quickly. But the paralysis was progressive and he lapsed into coma on Sunday, and passed away peacefully on Monday evening, Aug. 31. His Will makes me the sole executor of his estate.

Among my Father's papers I find your letter to him of Aug. 7, as follows: "So glad to hear from you and receive the review. As to your articles, I hope you will not insist on my returning them. I have so many coming in that they are of cecessity printed very slowly, but yours come in frequently as excellent because they are brief and also because you write out of rich wisdom. Please do not hesitate to send more, even though they may be slow in appearing."

In his letter to me of Aug. 11 my Father wrote: "Dr. Robinson sent me a book on missions for review and with the review I asked for the return of MSS that he had no room for. I will not insist on this." It therefore seems that this constitutes his permission to use his articles as you find space for them. But it will be a favor if you will send me at once a list of the titles of these articles, and in each case a copy of The Presbyterian in which it is printed. Please return to me the manuscripts of such of the arti- as you do not care to print.

Appreciatively yours,

Floyd H. Hazard
